

AWC-FL 2022 Terms & Conditions

All members of the American Women's Club of Liechtenstein and the Rhine Valley (a.k.a. AWC-FL) must agree to the following terms and conditions to participate in AWC-FL Events & activities and have access to the AWC-FL Hello-Club system and social media accounts. Please email our president at President@AWC-FL.com with any questions or concerns.

CLUB DOCUMENTS

All AWC-FL Members are responsible for reviewing and agree to abide by the following club documents:

- AWC-FL Club By-Laws (Statuten): 2022 - <http://www.awc-fl.com/wp-content/uploads/2022/03/AWC-FL-2022-Statuten.pdf>
- AWC-FL Code of Conduct: 2022 - <http://www.awc-fl.com/wp-content/uploads/2022/03/AWC-FL-2022-Code-of-Conduct.pdf>

SOCIAL MEDIA

- All AWC-FL Members understand that only Club-Approved Private Social Media Accounts can be used for sharing any personal or detailed information regarding club activities based on the understanding that only current members will have access to these Private Accounts.
- AWC-FL members also understand that social media accounts are not 100% effective in keeping information out of the public domain.

PHOTO SHARING

All AWC-FL Members agree to the following stipulations regarding sharing, posting or using club photos.

- Photos will only be shared on private Club-Approved Private Social Media Accounts.
- Photos of children will not be shared without permission of the parent or guardian (verbal or written).
- If a member requests a photo to be removed for any reason, the poster will do so as soon as it is convenient.
- With the exception of group photos, before any photos are used in the public domain (club webpage, public-visible online accounts, printed materials) the membership will be given an opportunity to object to the use of a photo they are in.
- If one member verbally asks that a photo taken by another member not be shared while they are in it, the request shall be respected.

ADDITIONAL NOTES:

- COVID Vaccination Status: The question in the Hello-Club system is built-in and is OPTIONAL, there is no requirement by the AWC_FL to provide your vaccination status.
- Member Contact information: Every member's address, phone and email are automatically made visible in the membership directory that is visible to all members. Each member has the option to disable this feature so only the desired contact info is made available in the membership directory.
